FOREWARD

As one enters the doors of West Charlotte, he wonders what lies ahead. Beyond the doors in our school are many challenges and golden opportunities which must be opened with the right key. This key, obtained by observance and effort, may lead to happiness and self-satisfaction.

As one leaves West Charlotte, he is awed by the boundless future; yet, he has many treasured memories of past experiences. We have attempted to captivate many of those memories in this volume of THE LION.

Dedicated to

In sincere respect for her loyalty, subtle tact, and perceptive understanding, the senior class dedicates the 1968 LION to Miss Lois B. Fitts.

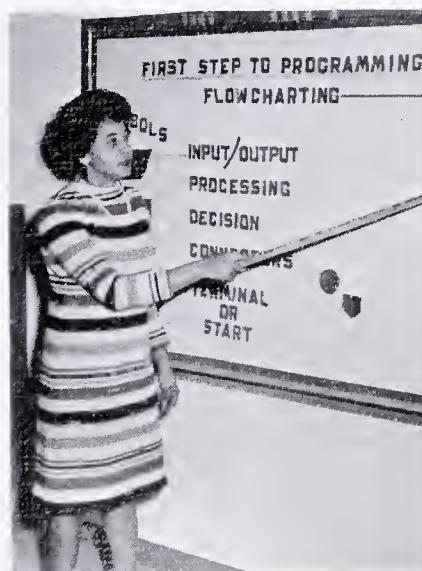

Miss Fitts uses the overhead projector to teach her class.

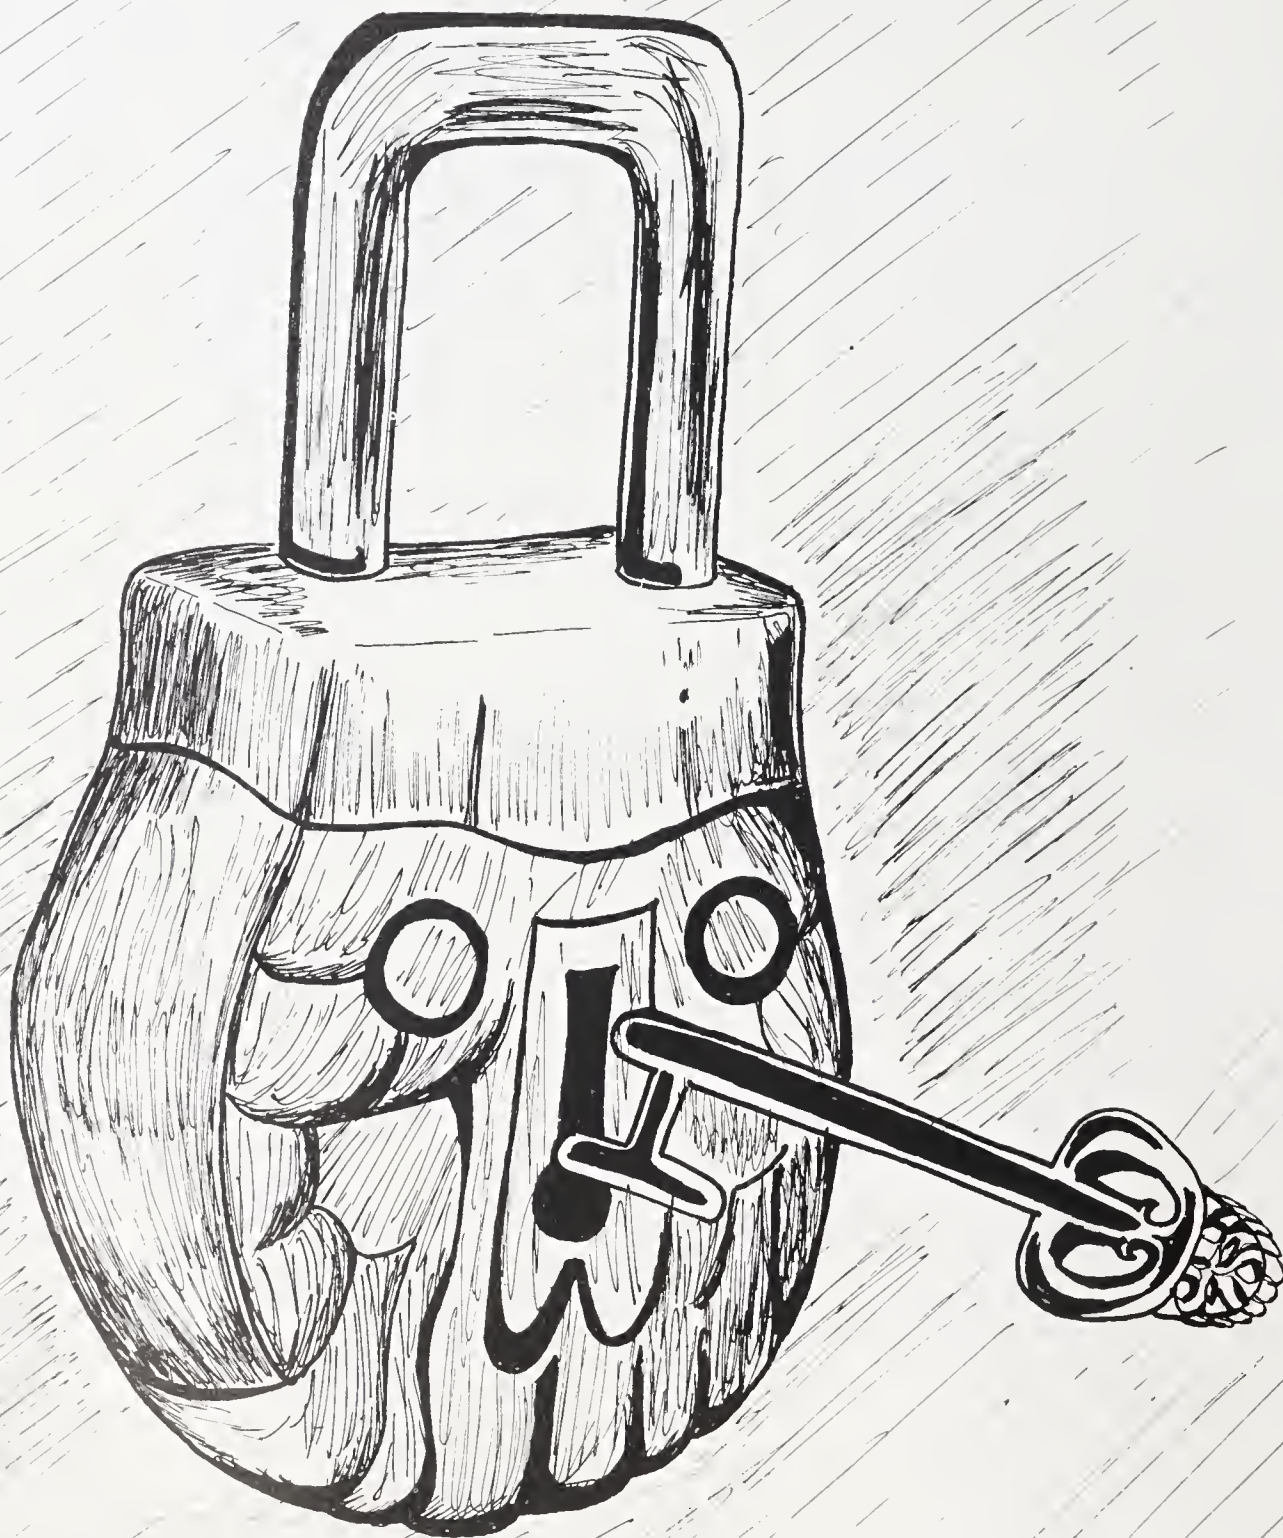

Miss Fitts points out the steps to programming in data processing.

Miss Fitts is starting the 85 Collator to sort cards.

Your future lies through these doors

Miss Smith,

Any sophomore student should be more than happy
to have you as their teacher.
They should love and strive that much more to make you proud of them. May you and yours have much happiness; also may you have happiness with all future tenth grade students.

Always,
Constance J. Shaw

A look behind the doors at W.C.

Mr. Fred Alexander, city councilman administers the oath to the newly installed Student Council Officers. Howard Boger, Diane Evans, William Johnson, Reginald Thompson, Hazel Murray, Alice Stacks, Ritchie Brooks, Myra Davis, Patricia Thompson, and Dr. Spencer, E. Durante.

Dr. Rann addresses the student body during the celebration of Negro History Week.

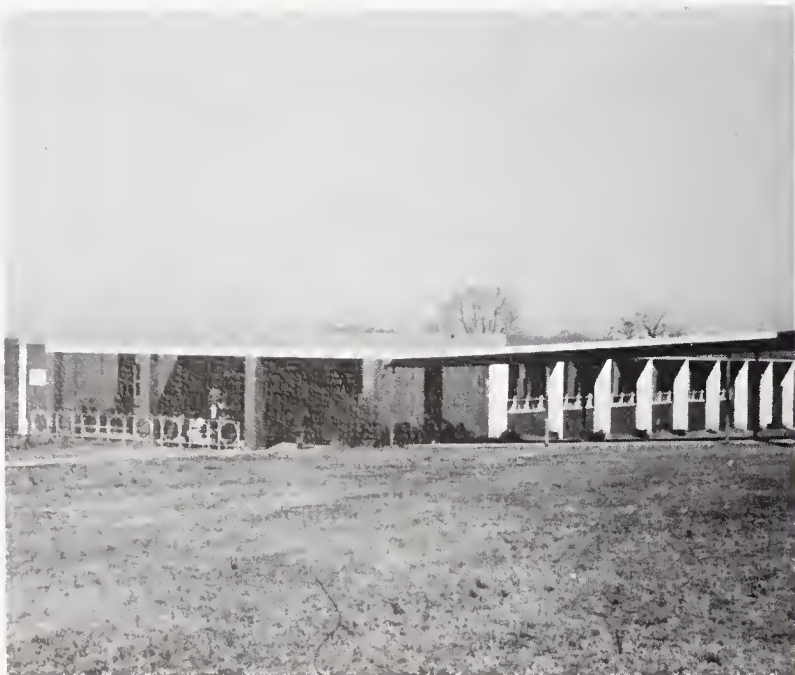

Miss Homecoming and her court.

Dr. Robert Hanes, assistant superintendent of schools cuts the ribbon in the New Performing Arts Complex while Dr. Spencer E. Durante, principal, and William Johnson, president of Student Council, look on.

The look of progress

There were moments of solitude . . .

"Love is not love which alters when it alteration finds . . ."

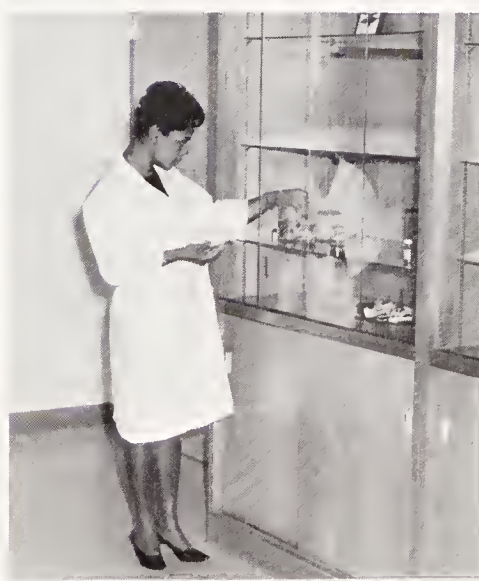

Tenderness is . . .

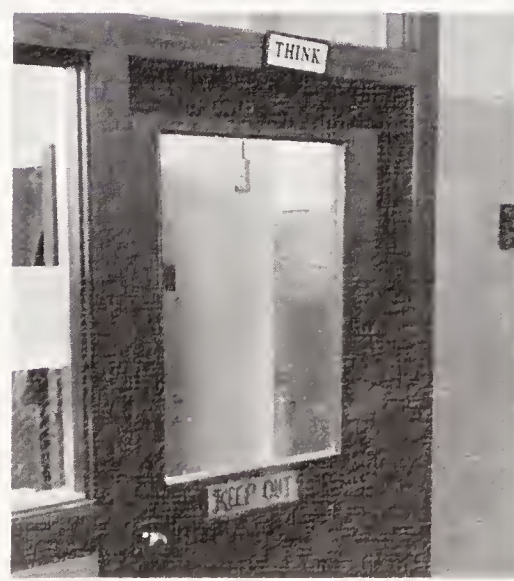

After class is over

Press 'im, man.

All wrapped up in my work

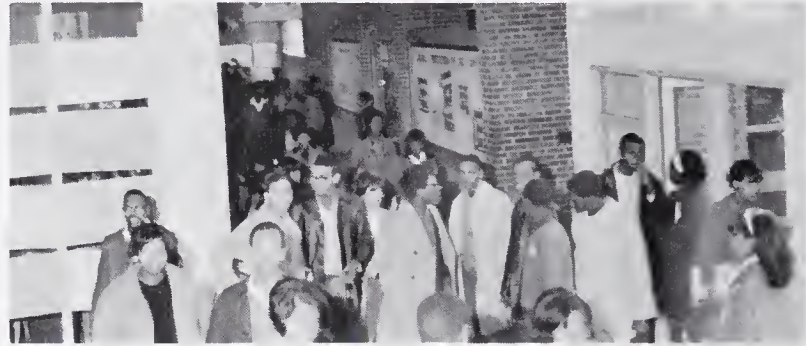

This means you

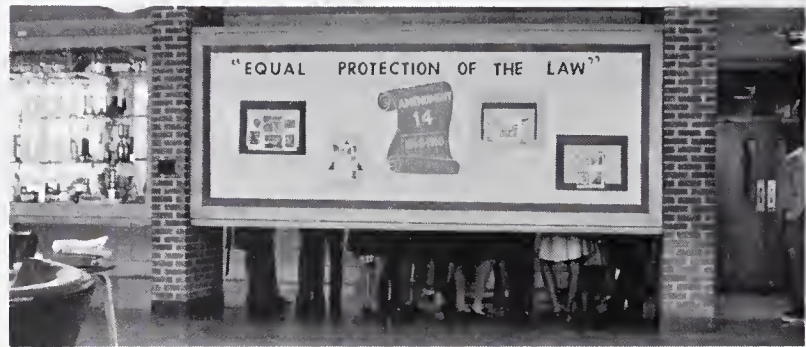

... and times we shared with each other

Today we cram; tomorrow we flunk.

Where the action is

Looking for a Fox

I'll take two

In a mellow mood

... and then the ESEA took Washington

This is life in the Lion's Den

You mix a little mud, a few egg-shells, some tartar, a drop of water and what have you got? Ugh!

"Did he just throw a quarter out there?"

Did it!

"On the outside looking in"

And away we go!

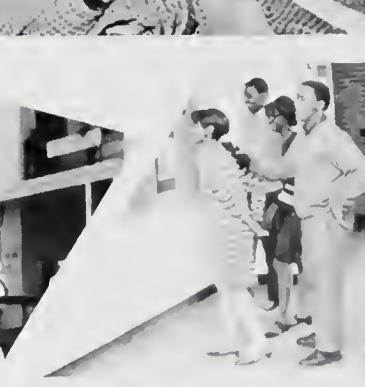

Trophies and . . . ?

"Nah man, she didn't!"
